

Date: _____

Name: _____

The ground beneath the farm

This activity was created by Huda.

Esiw is trying to complete the mad lib on the next page but needs help coming up with some words. Can you give Esiw a hand?

Fill this page and then use the words you come up with to complete the mad lib on the next page!

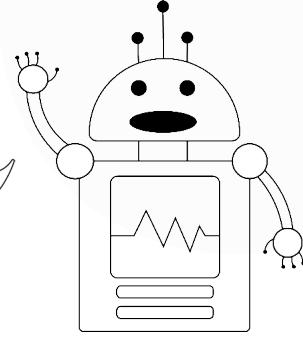

1. Name of a City: _____
2. Person's Name: _____
3. Number: _____
4. Verb (3rd person present, example: she waits and watches. an 's' or 'es'):

5. Two words, Verb (ing): _____
6. Noun (plural): _____
7. Noun (plural): _____
8. Noun (plural): _____
9. Adjective: _____
10. Number: _____
11. Adjective: _____
12. Noun: _____
13. Noun: _____
14. Verb: _____
15. Noun (room): _____
16. Verb: _____

Date: _____

Name: _____

Can you add in the words you came up with on the previous page below. Make sure they are in order!

“Good morning (1) _____! My name is farmer (2) _____ and I am here to tell you a little bit about the magic of soil.”

“On my (3) _____ acre farm, I (4) _____ using soil. There are many types of soils that can be used for (5) _____.

Loamy soil, which is most fertile, is best for growing (6) _____. Clay soil, best known for how well it can hold water, is greatest for growing (7)

_____, and sandy soil, although (8) _____, is useful for plants that grow well in warm areas.”

“On my farm, I have about (9) _____ bags of soil.”

“In soil, there are 4 major components. 1. Water, 2. (10) _____ Rocks, 3.

Air that helps organisms (11) _____, and 4 organic material made up of dead (12) _____ and (13) _____ that forms humus.”

The best thing to do with soil is (14) _____ it. This is because it ensures the soil lasts a while on the farm. It is also important to sieve the soil at times, something similar to what you would do in the (15) _____ with flour. But as all things come to an end, when sedimentation occurs to my soil, it makes me want to (16) _____.